Endorsing the application of Dr A. Du Plessis

Andre' an inspiration as a colleague. His willingness to assist and engage with colleagues and students in a respectful and humanising way has endeared him to us. His commitment and enthusiasm to both his teaching and areas of speciality is well known and is a source of inspiration to his colleagues and students. Dr Du Plessis is very competent in the area of Mathematics and Technology and is always willing to try out new ideas to assist students and the faculty in general. Many of his ideas with regard to creating websites as well as identifying sophisticated but interesting and efficient ways of presenting lectures have and are being used by members in this faculty.

Dr Du Plessis' leadership style is affirming, inclusive, innovative and engaging.

Dr Du Plessis' professionalism and compassion as a human being will hold him in good stead for any initiative that he undertakes.
